

A Just simply because I had very, very little contact with him.

BY MR. STUDER:

Q Did you avoid him?

A No, not at all avoid him; I simply that our home was in one place, their home was in another and every time that I did see him we were very, very cordial. We talked on general subjects and we were always friendly. When he came to see me at Lavalette on the 23d of June it was my impression that he brought his bathing suit with him and changed in our house. I think I put on my bathing suit and went in swimming with him on that day; I certainly did on one or two other occasions that he came down there, but I think I did that time, because I think that was the only time he came down that summer.

BY MR. PALZER:

Q Did you know him prior to his marriage for any very great length of time?

A I never saw him until when Mrs. Stevens and I went over to New Brunswick one time when my mother was living (this was before they were married) we were there and without any warning whatever Frances went to the telephone and said "Wait down here a little while in the room with mother" and she went to the telephone
